

Inclusion and Employability.

How internationalization can be a pathway for inclusion.

Inclusion is a priority in European policy. Concretely, social inclusion is one of the main features in Erasmus+ programme. Hence, all the projects must be inclusive, ensuring the participation of people in disadvantaged situations in relation with their peers. In this context, the Transnational Cooperation Activity Inclusion and Employability. How internationalization can be a pathway for inclusion, aims at generating the tools for attaining more inclusive projects.

Goals:

1. Understanding internationalization as a resource on social and educational work with people in disadvantaged situations.
2. Fostering the exchange of experiences and tips for the internationalization in social and educational work.
3. Designing the bases for future Erasmus+ Projects.

Profile of participants:

- VET Organizations.
- Public institutions interested in participation in European projects.
- Human resources and consultant companies.
- Associations, Foundations or NGO's.
- Others.

Contents:

- 1- Internationalization as a tool for promoting inclusion of people in disadvantaged situations.
- 2- Principles and strategies for the design of inclusive Erasmus+ projects in VET sector.
